

Alethea Mae Imerman

May 20, 1926 - November 11, 2018

Alethea Mae Imerman, 92, of Hampton, Iowa, passed away Sunday, November 11, 2018, at Grand Jivante in Ackley. She was born May 30, 1926, in Vincent, Iowa, to John and Jurgena (Neilson) Pandil. Alethea and her family later moved to Hampton, graduating from Hampton High School. She was united in marriage to Harvey Imerman on December 8, 1946, in Hampton. He preceded Alethea in death in 1969. In 1970, Alethea began working at First National Bank in Hampton, retiring in 1991, as head of the bookkeeping department. In her retirement years, she enjoyed baking, embroidering, crocheting and sewing. Alethea is survived by her son Curtis (Mary Pat) Imerman of Knoxville, Tennessee, sister Dorothy Abbas of Hampton, sister Genevieve Borcharding of Latimer, two step-grandchildren Chris (Karen) of Allen, Texas, Darcie (Dan) of Knoxville, Tennessee and five step-great-grandchildren Katie, Jacob, Anya, Liza and Banks. She was preceded in death by her parents, husband Harvey Imerman, four brothers Roger, Junior, Marvin and Melvin "Whitey" and two sisters Genevieve Carol and Velma. A memorial fund has been established in Alethea's name.

Tribute Wall

“ Alethea Mae Imerman

Whitney Eaton - November 13, 2018 at 01:56 PM