

Arthur C. Rodemeyer

November 6, 1924 - January 14, 2014

Arthur Carl Rodemeyer, 89, of Hampton, Iowa, passed away peacefully with his family at his side, January 14 at Franklin General Hospital after a brief battle with cancer. Art was born November 6, 1924, in Hampton to Otto & Amanda (Pralle) Rodemeyer. He grew up in Hampton and became a farmer like his Dad. On February 12, 1955, Art married Shirley Struss in Mason City. Following their marriage they farmed together on the family farm south of Hampton. Together they raised four children, Mike, Karen, Ron and Debbie. Art was a loving husband and father that always put his family first. He loved traveling and taking his family on summer vacations. There were many great memories made over the years. He and Shirley enjoyed traveling to Harlingen, Texas during the winter months. Art had many friends and was a great story teller. He loved planting & taking care of his garden & always enjoyed being outdoors working on something around the farm. He was always willing to lend a hand to anyone that needed help and always with a smile on his face. His greatest joy was being with his family, especially his grandchildren & great-grandchildren. He loved watching all their activities and they loved having him there. Art was a lifelong member of the Trinity Lutheran Church. Art is survived by his loving wife Shirley, children Mike (Helen) Rodemeyer of Waxahachie, Texas, Karen (Vern) Wirtjes of Hampton, Ron (Janet) Rodemeyer of Frisco, Texas, and Debbie (Mitch) Vanness of Latimer, grandchildren Kimberly Malorzo of Little Elm, Texas, Shelley (Danny) Sims of Mansfield, Texas, Jessica Brooks of West Des Moines, Tyson (Ashley) Wirtjes
