

Betty Jean Moore

November 24, 1924 - December 8, 2019

Betty Moore, 95, of Hampton, Iowa, passed away Sunday, December 8, 2019, at Franklin Country View Nursing Facility in Hampton. Betty Jean Moore, daughter of Clyde and Ruth (Coup) Livingston, was born on November 24, 1924, in Bedford, Iowa. She graduated from North High School in Des Moines in 1942, and attended the University of Iowa for two years. Betty married Dr. Robert L. Moore on June 16, 1944, at the Presbyterian Church in Des Moines. She was a member of the Hampton United Methodist Church and a former member of the Hampton Women's Club, the Franklin General Hospital Auxiliary, the Parental Guidance Club, AAUW, Iowa CO of TTT and the Hampton Country Club. Betty was past president of P.T.A. in Hampton and was a Girl Scout leader when her children were in school. She enjoyed working part time in the dental office after her son Dr. William Moore started his practice in Hampton. Her winters were spent mainly in Texas where she loved to swim, play bridge and dance. She liked to fly and held a private pilots license for years. Betty is survived by her son Dr. William B. Moore and wife Pam of Hampton; daughter Marilyn Moore of Des Moines; three grandchildren, Teresa Lee Hines Lacerda and husband Michael, Wendy Marie Hines Hurwitz and husband David, and Brian C. Hines and wife Peggy, all of Allentown, Pennsylvania; six great-grandchildren, Lana Jean Hurwitz, Alexander Jacob Hurwitz, Elysa Catherin Lacerda, Carina Nancy Olinda Lacerda, and twins Liza Hines and Nora Hines; and sister-in-law June Livingston of San Antonio, Texas. She was preceded in death by her parents

Clyde and Ruth Livingston, daughter Nancy Hines on June 21, 2003, husband Dr. Robert L. Moore on August 2, 2007, and brother Col. (Ret.) Robert Livingston. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be given to the Betty Moore Memorial Fund.
