

Bryan Camden Rowan

August 21, 2005 - October 3, 2018

Bryan Camden Rowan, 13, of Bradford, Iowa, passed away Wednesday, October 3, 2018, in Waverly. He was born on August 21, 2005, in Cleveland, Ohio, to Matthew Koenig and Heather Rowan. Bryan moved to Iowa at the age of nine. He attended schools in Iowa Falls, most recently Riverbend Middle School. Bryan loved school and was active in cross country. He was very smart and creative. Bryan enjoyed building things and could entertain himself for hours. He loved Legos, fishing, video games and computers. Bryan would help his dad work on cars, shoot bow and arrow with his grandpa and was beginning to learn how to garden. He had a big heart and was always willing to help others. This summer, Bryan attended services with his grandparents, Matt and Karen, at First Congregational United Church of Christ in Hampton. On Sunday mornings, he loved dressing up, wearing his fish tie and looked forward to lighting the candles. Bryan is survived by his mother Heather Rowan, father Matthew Koenig, siblings Jacob, Kimmy, Jordan and Maynard, grandparents Darlene Rowan, Layla (Mark) Thiele and Matt (Karen) Koenig, aunts and uncles Brian (Rosa) Rowan, Chris (Amanda) Rowan, Tanya Rowan, Franki Koenig, Melissa (Johnny) Adcox and Michael Adcox, along with numerous other relatives and friends. He was preceded in death by his grandfather Bennie Rowan. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be directed to Bryan's family or backpacks with school supplies can be donated to help other students in Iowa Falls.
