Carol and Bob loved to travel and explore new places. Carol worked many years for ME Fort & Co and the Hardin County Township. In retirement she worked for Osweiler's Women's Fashions in Webster City as a bookkeeper and worked on the floor helping women choose clothing and even modeled items for the store. She shared those treats, with love, to many people in her family and community. She was an avid houseplant keeper with her sunroom affectionately being called the 'Jungle Room' by family. Above all, she was of strong faith and loved her family and friends dearly.
