

Cornelius V. Miller

April 6, 1928 - March 14, 2012

Cornelius "Corny" Virgil Miller, 83, of Allison, Iowa passed away Wednesday at the Rehabilitation Center of Allison in Allison, Iowa. He was born April 6, 1928, in Grundy County, Iowa to Edward "Ed" & Follie (Karsjens) Miller. Corny attended Allison Schools in Allison, Iowa. He was united in marriage to Marlys Allan on June 27, 1954, in Allison, Iowa. Corny was a member of the Trinity Reformed Church, where he served on the Consistory and he was also a Sunday School Superintendent. He retired as a plumber in 1993 and enjoyed baseball, golfing and biking. Cornelius is survived by his wife Marlys of Allison, son Kim and wife JoAnn Miller of Allison, daughter Patti and husband Chris Conrad of Cedar Falls, son Donn and wife Susan Miller of Allison, sister Henrietta Klooster of Aplington, sister Lois Rewerts of Waverly, brother Edo and wife Louise Miller of Allison, brother Wayne and wife Joan Miller of Allison, sister Dolores husband Merle Hoodjer of Allison, sister Joyce Gardner of Waverly, five grandchildren Kristi Miller and husband Travis Gansen, Becky and husband Jamie Kibbee, Amber Sue Miller, Dana Conrad and Claire Conrad and four great-grandchildren Kasia Gansen, Noah Gansen, Tayler Kibbee and Kaylin Kibbee. He was preceded in death by his parents and brothers Joe, LeRoy, Douglas and Larry. Burial will take place at the Rose Hill Cemetery in Greene, Iowa

Tribute Wall

“ Cornelius V. Miller

John Allan - March 15, 2012 at 08:40 AM