

Curt Oelmann

March 6, 1966 - November 15, 2019

Curt Oelmann, 53, of Iowa Falls, passed away Friday, November 15, 2019 at MercyOne North Iowa Hospice in Mason City. A memorial visitation will be held from 5:30-7:30 PM on Thursday, November 21, 2019 at the Woodley Funeral Home. Those planning an expression of sympathy may wish to consider memorials to the family. Woodley Funeral Home and Cremation Services of Iowa Falls is caring for Curt and his family.

Curt Alan Oelmann was born in Iowa Falls, Iowa on March 6, 1966 to Freddie and Joyce (White) Oelmann. He was employed by Concrete Incorporated in Iowa Falls for 25 years as a mechanic and truck driver.

Curt Oelmann was one of the most hardworking, loving men. His arms and feet were never at rest, constantly helping and moving. In times of rest his arms were wrapped around his two grandsons, Brenneke and Bryken. Curt was funny in a sarcastic way, which quite possibly was the best way. He was stubborn as a mule. His sarcasm, stubbornness, and everything in-between made Curt into the most wonderful and beautiful husband, father, grandfather, sibling, and friend. Anyone who knew Curt was lucky to have his presence and love.

Curt is survived by his wife, Teresa Oelmann of Iowa Falls, Iowa; son, Nathaniel Oelmann of Iowa Falls, Iowa; daughter, Burgundy (Scott) Dougan of Cedar Falls, Iowa; two grandsons, Brenneke and Bryken Dougan of Cedar Falls, Iowa; sisters, Angel Earnist and Tracy (Todd) Dorenkamp of Iowa Falls, Iowa; mother and father in-law, Linda and Dennis Daniels of Alden, Iowa; sister in-law, Tammy (Matt) Banning of Center Point, Iowa; brother in-law, John Lebeck of Clemons, Iowa; uncle and aunts, Raymond (Donna) Oelmann of Beaman, Iowa, Martha Heiden of Amery, Wisconsin, Thelma (Roger) Yakel of Iowa Falls, Iowa; many nieces, nephews and special friends: Mary Severson, Ken Pearce, Nate Monroe, Travis Clement and Jon Harkrider. He was preceded in death by his parents and one sister, Tammy Bonin.
