“ I had heard that Curtis passed away, but living out of state did receive the news until now. I remember when Curtis came into his family. His folks and mine were great friends and we visited often with the family. Curtis was always cheerful and enjoyed talking about farming. My heart goes out to the family, Curtis will be missed but not forgotten..

“ always enjoyed talking to Curtis - he was so friendly and outgoing. I think he went fishing a few times with my father Ernie and loved to talk about that. When he came into Kruse Grain in Cleves, he lit up the conversation! He always called me "Eddie". He and Irvin were a part of the Cleves memories I cherish.

“ Sincerest sympathy to Curtis' family. I work at the Barlow Library here in Iowa Falls and was fortunate to wait on Curtis many times. We had many conversations on our shared likes of certain authors especially Clive Cussler! I will miss our chats and his friendly smile.
