

Daniel Lester Peters

August 10, 1967 - November 18, 2018

Daniel Lester Peters, 51, of Allison, Iowa, passed away Sunday, November 18, 2018, at his home in Allison. He was born on August 10, 1967, in Waverly, Iowa, to Lester Peters and Marcia Schultz. Daniel graduated from Plainfield High School and from Joe Kubert School of Art in Dover, New Jersey. He worked as a computer animator for Asylum out of Los Angeles, California. Daniel had a love for cats and could always get their attention; he was a cat whisperer. Daniel had an infectious laugh and would laugh often. He saw humor in the everyday foibles of humanity and saw the humor in himself. Daniel was a science fiction buff, extraordinaire. His sense of wonder about all things outer space related led to his interest in writing and animation of "other worlds." Daniel is survived by his mother Marcia (Mervin) Edeker of Allison, his father Lester (Linda) Peters of Plainfield, his brother Roger (Melisa) Peters of Waverly, nephews Alan Peters, U.S. Army, Ft. Bragg, North Carolina, Michael Peters of Allison and Andrew Peters of Allison, step-brother Dr. Brian (Lisa) Edeker of Iowa City, step-brother Daniel (Lori) Edeker of Allison, step-sister Kristin Montgomery (Denise Arend) of Sacramento, California, step-brother Adam Ripley of Nashua, step-sister Melissa (Doug) Berger of Denver, Iowa, step-nieces Madison Wood of Myrtle Beach, North Carolina and McKenzie Wood of Waverly, along with numerous aunts, uncles and cousins. He was preceded in death by his grandparents. In lieu of flowers family requests that memorials be sent to a charity of your choice.
