

David "Dilly" Deeringer

May 24, 1972 - September 26, 2020

David Lee "Dilly" Deeringer, Jr., 48, of Wellsburg, passed away surrounded by his family on Saturday, September 26, 2020. Following Dave's wishes, the family will be having a Celebration of Life at 3:00 PM on Saturday, October 3, 2020 at the Wellsburg Fire Station.

David Lee Deeringer, Sr and Geraldine Kay (Stevens) Deeringer welcomed David, Jr into this world in Omaha, Nebraska on May 24, 1972. Dave grew up and later graduated from Chariton High School in 1991. Following high school Dave attended North Iowa Community College majoring in the John Deere Tech program. On February 15, 1992 Dave was united in marriage to his high school sweetheart, Shelly (Sibert) Deeringer. Dave and Shelly made their home in Grundy County for all 28 years of their marriage, where they raised their 3 children, Brittane, Dakota and Tanner that God blessed them with.

Dave was a humble, kind, sometimes comical man who treasured his family. Dave was passionate about helping others which could be seen through his 23 years of service as a volunteer firefighter on Holland-Colfax Township Fire Department and Wellsburg Fire Department, Cedar Valley FOOLS, 4-H Volunteer, volunteering at rodeos and helping in his community anyway he could. He had a heart of gold and passed that on through his children and their passions. Dave had a passion for campfire cooking, farming, and the agriculture industry as a whole and spent more than 30 years serving those in the industry. Following his passion for service, it was Dave's wish to be an organ donor and his family finds comfort knowing through this struggle someone else's family can find relief.

Dave leaves behind his loving wife of 28 years, Shelly Deeringer of Wellsburg, Iowa; his children, Brittanee Deeringer, Dakota (Mackenzie Shaver) Deeringer of Wellsburg, Iowa, Tanner (Madisyn Ries) Sibert of Ackley, Iowa; brother, Bill Deeringer of Collinsville, Illinois; sister-in-law, Sherry (Travis) Kistler of Osceola, Iowa and many nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles and cousins. Dave also leaves behind a large Fire Service Brotherhood and many, many friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents, David, Sr and Geraldine Deeringer; mother and father-in-law, Gary and Pamela Sibert; grandparents and many, many family and friends.

“ Shelly and family your in our thought and prayers. DJ will be missed by so many he was taken to early. He had a heart of gold he was funny, he had a good heart and Shelly was his #1 love forever and ever. He was a great dad to the 3 kids but he loved all kids. I will miss you DJ but I know your with God now he must of had a job that needed a angel with a greatness so he called for you.
I love you Aunt Cheryl
