Delores (Dee) was born on March 16, 1948, in Hampton, Iowa, to Genevieve and Berle Anderson. She grew up on a farm just a few miles north of the current Lyon farm. She graduated from Dows High School, and later earned her Associate's Degree from Ellsworth College.

On June 30, 1967, Dee married Jerry Lee Lyon, her lifelong partner and friend. Together they built a beautiful family grounded in deep and abiding love. Dee was a devoted homemaker who poured her heart into her family, home and the family farm. She had a gift for crafting and sewing, and her beautiful flowers and vegetable gardens reflected her delight in simple things.

Dee was always willing to lend a helping hand. She gave generously of her time and energy, and her kind spirit was felt by all who knew her. Living on the farm brought her great happiness and peace.

She is survived by her husband Jerry; their children, Chad Lyon and Sheryne Lyon; grandchildren Zac Lyon, Max Lyon, Tony Lyon, Raya Capel, and Russo Capel; and great-grandchildren Kohen Lyon and Ruby Lyon. She is also survived by her siblings Phyllis Nelson, Donna Oelmann, Russ Anderson, and Joyce Meyer.

“ This is such a beautiful picture of Dee. She was so much fun to work with for many years at Walmart. I remember her love for jewelry and her desire to do all things well. I also remember her speaking of her grandchildren and the joy they brought to her. □ My sadness and condolences to her family. She was very special.

I only had the pleasure of meeting Dee a few times, but she was a very sweet woman. My daughter met her more times and found her to be very warm and welcoming. My heartfelt condolences to her family and friends.
