“ She raised me. She took care of me, even after her death, sh attempted to make sure that my family and I didn't ever struggle again. Unfortunately her oldest son couldn't resist temptation and made sure his mother's wishes were taken away so he may benefit. I was correct Grandma, this gift of millions made me a target. But you were worth more than that money. You made sure that I was the only one that could get it, I'm not sure if that's still the case, but I am still alive, I've survived his attempts on my life. I miss you grandma. Thank you for protecting me, after your sudden death. I can't wait to see you again in paradise
