

Donovon Lynn Krukow

March 27, 1933 - June 12, 2015

Donovon Lynn Krukow, 82, of Hampton, Iowa, passed away Friday at his home in Hampton, Iowa. Donovon Lynn Krukow was born March 27, 1933 in Hampton, Iowa, the son of Theodore and Clara (Faust) Krukow. He attended West Mar College LaMars, Iowa and Iowa State University, Ames, Iowa. Don served in the Korean war 1954-1956 Air Section Headquarters Company 9th Infantry division, 7th army in Gloppigin, Germany. He graduated TDY air force airframe mechanic school at San Marcus, Texas and twin engine transition school in Ft. Hood , Texas. He was deployed to Gloppigin Germany where he was crew chief on the De Haviland Beaver L20.and was the mechanic for Gen. George Maddox of the Headquarters company 9th Infantry division. Don received the Expert Medal for 30 cal. M1 Rifle Scorer. He attended non commissioned officer academy in Munich Germany. Don married Belva Dee Tindall on August 15, 1959 and they began farming. To this union two sons were born, David Mark Krukow , Hampton, Iowa and Jonathan Lynn Krukow, Hampton, Iowa. Don was a flight instructor and loved flying. His interest included woodworking, fishing and flying in the Canadian wilderness. He was licensed private pilot, commercial pilot, sea plane, single engine, multi engine and multi engine instrument instructor. He is survived by his wife, Belva Krukow Hampton, Iowa, Sons David Krukow, Hampton, Iowa and Jonathan Krukow, Hampton, Iowa, Sister in law Lenora Krukow of Cordova, Illinois and many nieces, nephews and cousins. He was preceded in death by his parents and his brother Eugene Krukow of Cordova, Illinois.

Tribute Wall

“ Donovon Lynn Krukow

S. Lee - June 22, 2015 at 10:35 PM