May 24, 1925 - February 1, 2017

Edna Mae Schrage, 91, of Allison, passed away Wednesday, February 1, 2017, at the Rehabilitation Center of Allison in Allison, Iowa. She was born May 24, 1925, in West Point Township in Butler County, Iowa to Fred and Emma (Rover) Kramer. Edna attended rural country school in Butler County, Iowa. She was united in marriage to Raymon Schrage on July 14, 1943, at the St. James Lutheran Church parsonage in Allison, Iowa, Raymon passed away November 7, 1996. Edna and Raymon farmed together all their married life near Bristow, Iowa. They moved to Allison in 1992, but stayed active in farming until 1996. She was a member of St. James Lutheran Church in Allison, where she was baptized and confirmed, and was active in the women's circle and quilting. Edna was involved in Garden Club and delivered Meals on Wheels. She enjoyed fishing trips to Canada and winter trips to Texas. Edna liked having coffee, playing cards and board games with her friends. She was an excellent cook and baker. When you stopped to visit you could count on a cup of coffee or tea and something to eat that she had baked. Most of all she loved spending time with her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. Edna is survived by her daughters Karen (Gary) Fecht of Shell Rock, Carol (Stuart) McDaniel of Nevada, Marilyn (Larry) Busch Cedar Falls, and Judy (David) Allen of Boone, seven grandchildren, thirteen great grandchildren and one great great grandchild on the way. She is preceded in death by her parents, husband and two sisters Loraine Dralle and Kathleen Wiegmann.
