She was a member of the TTT society, Red Hat Society, As You Like It organization, and Franklin County Hospital Auxiliary. In her free time, Betty was an avid bridge player, book reader and found immense joy in meeting with her coffee sisters. She

Betty was preceded in death by her husband Roger, parents Thomas and Dorothy, brothers Bernard, Maurice, and Martin, and sister Joanne Manternach.

Betty greatly enjoyed annual vacations to the family cabin in northern Minnesota as well as trips to Disneyworld and Ireland. Betty and Roger enjoyed regular visits to Scottsdale, Arizona and Door County, Wisconsin. Betty will be greatly missed by her family, friends, and community.
