“ I wish I had a picture of me and Frank as nice as the one posted below by the Jewells. Frank was my first cousin, the son of my Aunt Dorothy (my mom's sister) and Uncle Ed. It was my mom's birthday last week, October 3rd (she passed away in 2012), the day Frank passed away. I thought of her several times that day and thought to call Frank... but I didn't.

I live on the East Coast, but whenever I would visit Iowa Falls, Frank would take the time to come and visit me on my parent's farm, drink his morning coffee (usually after he'd already played a round of golf) and catch up. We both like and collected Native American jewelry, so we'd have show and tell. After my parents passed away, I'd go out to his place north of town to chat (the last time we took me on a tour his windmills) or we'd drive over to Fort Dodge for a meal.

I will miss him dearly.

“ Frank would bring me bread from the bakery on his work trips. He would drop them off to me at work and yell "who loves ya baby?" on his way out. He always acted gruff but knew he was really a big softie.

“ Frank was a long time friend - we played golf together many times when I lived in Iowa Falls - such a nice guy and very polite, kind and caring. My heart hurts for those who also lost him - he will be missed by many. Had many late night phone calls from him when I was going thru a rough time in my life. Such a great friend who will be missed by me. Rest in peace, Frank....will see you on the other side.

“ For over 40 years Frank was like a 2nd father to me. My heart is broken and I will miss him every single day. He never missed a chance to tell me how much he loved me, how proud he was of me, or pull me into one of his incredible hugs. I will miss all of his stories, advice, and incredible cooking! I feel so lucky to have all the memories!! Love you forever! "Your Girl" Kathy (McCaulley) Jewell
