“ I got to know Gordon because he was renting the Ray Freie farms that my wife Barbara (Ray's daughter) was managing. After retiring I was able to go down to Iowa every fall for about 20 years to help Gordon (and then Kevin) with the harvest. I loved it and as a professional agronomist it gave me an opportunity to be outstanding in my field. Gordon was always a gentleman and easy to work with, even when things weren't going exactly right. I accompanied Gordon on many a trip to Dumont for parts or to check on equipment. We also watched many a World Series game together evenings. Lou Greub
