“ The first time I met Mr. Miller, I was tearing out with Gene on a tractor to rescue him from a bull that had him down in the field, when I was thirteen years old. For many years he was a presence in my life, and I won't forget him in a hurry.

“ The first time I met Harlan was a family Christmas when Gene introduced me to his family for the first time. I remember the huge smile he gave me and said he was happy to meet me. Both Harlan and Judy made me feel right at home and my love for them has grown since that day. My dad passed away a couple of years before and I have thought of Harlan as my stand in dad, I will forever miss this icon of father, grandfather, and husband. God bless you Harlan and know you will always be in my heart.
