“ Sensing my deepest sympathy to the family. I grew up with Jim, Jon, Barb and Cindy. Growing up we were all like brothers and sisters, instead of cousins and I will cherish every memory we made. God has bigger plans for you- I love you Jim and I will see you on the other side. Always in my heart. Love Kathy

“ I'm so very sorry to hear about Jim's passing 💔~ My heart goes out to his Jon, his mother Lois, his sisters Barb & Cindy, his dear twin brother Jon, and extended family & friends. I knew his family very well and have many years of wonderful memories with each of them. When Jim & Jon first moved to Manly, they were considered the "Best Looking Guys" in our class of '76!! They were the sweetest and funniest guys too! They had the greatest, most memorable, sounding giggles! 😂 Sending my heartfelt sympathy and love to Jim's family, as they mourn the loss of a life gone too soon. Fly High Jim and Rest In Eternal Peace~ 💙🕊️🙏
