Jamie was born on November 8, 1948, to Martin and Dorothy (Miller) Fink in Hampton. Jamie was a graduate of Hampton High School with the class of 1968. Jamie worked with his father Martin on the Fink Dairy Century Farm until Martin retired from farming. Jamie would continue to stay engaged in farming by helping his friends and neighbors in the surrounding area. Jamie was united in marriage to Jackie Spoo and the two made their lives together for over 44 years. Jamie married into a family that loved stock car racing, and he always jumped at the opportunity to head to Knoxville for the races and camping with Jackie and her family. In his free time, he enjoyed going on tractor rides and seeing the countryside at a nice and easy pace. Come fall he would be found rooting for his beloved Minnesota Vikings, with his faithful Saint Bernard next to him. Jamie was a member of Trinity Lutheran Church and never missed his turn as an usher on Sunday. He remained faithful to the end and made sure that he shared his beliefs with his family and close friends.

Left to cherish Jamie's memory are his wife of 44 years; Jackie, children, Chad and Crystal. brothers Glenn and Alan {Janelle} Fink, and many nieces and nephews.

In his passing he rejoins his parents Martin and Dorothy.
