

James Anderson Hensley

April 11, 1958 - December 21, 2015

James Anderson Hensley, 57, of Sheffield, passed away Monday, December 21, 2015, in Hampton. James was born on April 11, 1958, in Fort Rocker, Alabama, to Rayburn and Jean (Elkin) Hensley. With his father being a regular Army officer, James received his education in Canazas, Germany, California, Kentucky, and graduated from Mason City High School in 1976. James joined the Navy and was on the USS Henderson with duties as navy survivor rescue. While in the service, he married Vickie Julson and to this union a daughter, Danielle Marie, was born. They later divorced and after some time in Kentucky, James returned to Iowa to live and work with his father in organic feed distribution. James and his father moved to Sheffield in 1990 and worked until his father retired and James became disabled. James is survived by his mother Jean Lowery of Hampton. He had many special friends and will be missed by many. He was preceded in death by his father, Rayburn Kenneth Hensley in 2008 and his brother Rayburn Kenneth Hensley, Jr. in 2010.

Tribute Wall

“ James Anderson Hensley

Julie peltier - December 30, 2015 at 05:37 PM