James Marshall Hunt was born on March 28, 1953 to Merle William and Leona Mary Katherine (Oelmann) Hunt in Des Moines, Iowa. He graduated from Ackley High School and attended Wentworth Military Academy from 1971-1972. On July 7, 1972 James was united in marriage to Patricia Knight at the Wentworth Chapel in Lexington, Missouri. To this union two children were born, Jason and Joe. The couple later divorced. Jim was a maintenance worker at Ellsworth Community College for over twenty-five years. The last three years he helped his son Jason on the farm.

Jim was a good friend and a good listener. He enjoyed being on the farm, having morning coffee, mowing, running the skid loader and helping with any job he could. He also enjoyed fishing, camping and riding his motorcycle. He was fond of music and animals, especially his cats. He enjoyed spending the last few winters in Brownsville and built many great friendships. He always kept us updated with pictures and had many stories to tell upon his return. He was admired for how he took care of his mom before she passed away. He will be greatly missed.

Jim is survived by his children, Jason (Michelle) Hunt and Joe (Misty) Hunt; grandchildren: Carrinton, Alayna, Courtney, Isabella, MaryAnn, Jaxon and Jordyn and a sister, Jean (Rod) Kolthoff of Wellsburg, Iowa.
