“ Grandma always loved to sew and make mug rugs ♥I remember coming over every morning before school and every evening after school. I remember ordering BLT pizza ,chicken and the potato wedges from pizza ranch every Wednesday. I remember living with you. Baking and helping you cook, you also thought me so much, how to draw, color, cook, so much more! I remember you helping me kool-aid die my hair! I miss you so much you where the glue of the family and now it's gone.. we will also miss your funny jokes your walking farts and all the potato salad, cream peas and all that good stuff you made! It's honestly so hard with out you! I love you!

“ I miss you grandma. I miss your talks and your advice. You taught me so much about being a woman. Anytime mom didn't know the answer she sent me to you. Mom wasn't the girly type so when it came to makeup and girly things ... you were my teacher. You helped teach me to cook, to sew, and always helped me make decisions when I was too afraid to tell mom about it. And then you'd tell me .. "well.. you tell your mom by the end of the week or I'll have to" if it was something that she needed to know. I love you and I miss you!

“ I have so many great memories of my grandma. Her witty comments, her getting the walking farts, me calling her at 1-2 in the morning because I heard a bat in my closet, so I would spend the night with her. I love you, Grandma

“ Mom ALWAYS did everything she could to be there for us 3 kids, her grandkids, great grandkids and her ENTIRE family all of her life. She loved camping with us kids. NO ONE could make potato salad, creamed peas or homemade chicken & noodles like Mom. We love you Mom!
