Jean Lane, 88, of Waterloo and formerly of Dysart, passed away Saturday, April 9, 2016 at her home in Waterloo. Funeral services will be 10:30 am Thursday, April 14 at the Dysart United Methodist Church. Burial will be at the Dysart Cemetery. Visitation will be at the Dysart United Methodist Church from 5-7 pm on Wednesday, April 13. Woodley Funeral Home, LLC of Iowa Falls is caring for Jean and her family. 641-648-7700.

Jean Arydice Lane was born December 5, 1927 to Walter and Eva Schreiber on the family farm in Dysart. She was raised in Dysart where she attended Dysart Community Schools. On March 28, 1948 she was united in marriage to Donald Hoyt Lane at the Evangelical United Brethren Church in Dysart. Jean and Don made their home on the family farm. In 1959 they moved to town into a house they built together. Jean was employed at the Dysart-Geneseo Schools as a cook for many years. She was a community servant, participating in several clubs which included a Christians women's group and gardening club. She enjoyed baking cakes for family birthdays, graduations and other special occasions. She loved crafting and cooking, with one of her specialties being kuchen. She liked to spend time with family, especially with her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. In her spare time, Jean enjoyed square dancing, going to hockey games and supporting Don's Barber Shop Quartet. Due to her health, in 2013 she moved to Waterloo, Iowa to be with family.

Jean is survived by two daughters, Pamela (Drew) Clough of Waterloo, Iowa and Connie (Mike) Bonser of Waterloo, Iowa; five grandchildren: Eric (Amy) Foth, Kyle Fuller (Sarah Davis), Jordan (Alli) Fuller, Katelyn (Chris) Jensen and Jeremy Fuller; seven great-grandchildren: Adisyn, Ava, Trevor, Logan, Aslynn, Kael, Alex and one on the way. She was preceded in death by her husband, parents and two brothers, Jack and Jim Schreiber.
