

Jessie M. Wubbena

March 17, 1931 - January 20, 2017

Jessie Marie Wubbena, 85, of Allison, passed away Friday, January 20, 2017, at the Rehabilitation Center of Allison in Allison, Iowa. She was born March 17, 1931, in rural Parkersburg, Iowa to William and Martha (Huesinga) Schroeder. Jessie attended rural Butler country school. She was united in marriage to Robert Wubbena on October 27, 1951, in Parkersburg, Iowa. To this union, one son was born. Jessie was a homemaker and a farm wife. She belonged to Triple J's Ladies Group and St. James Lutheran Church in Allison. Jessie's greatest hobby was flowers; she had many gardens. She enjoyed crocheting, collecting rooster and hen sets, going to family sporting events, spending time with her two granddaughters. She was also known for loving the color green. Jessie is survived by her husband Robert Wubbena of Allison, son Stanley (Thea) Wubbena of Monona, granddaughters Whitney (Drew Martins) Wubbena of Monona, and Nicole (Tyler Hertrampf) of Ankeny, sisters Dorothy (Jake) Conrads of Crestwood, IL, and Mary (Richard) Squier of Mason City, and brother William (Madonna) Schroeder of Parkersburg.

Tribute Wall

“ Jessie M. Wubben”

Dorothy Luebbers - January 23, 2017 at 10:55 PM