Joseph graduated from Allison-Bristow High School in 1996 with honors. He met his wife, Jennifer Marth, at UNI and instantly knew he wanted to spend the rest of his life with her. They were united in marriage on March 8, 2003, at St. John's Lutheran Church in Charles City, IA. In 2011, they welcomed their beautiful daughter Anayla in Chicago, IL, where they decided to build their life.

He was a jack of all trades: accomplished in photography, caregiving, retail sales management, and his most important job, being a full-time father and husband. His greatest joy in life was Anayla. He lit up watching her perform in all her activities. He loved traveling and spending time with his family and friends. Joe was also an avid Hawkeye, Michael Jordan, Minnesota Vikings and Twins fan. If you didn't love them all, "It's okay. Not everyone is perfect."

Joe was a kind, selfless person who was willing to help anyone.

Joseph was survived by his wife; Jennifer, daughter; Anayla, parents; David and Kelly, brother; Daniel (Alexis), nieces and nephews; (Harrison, Harper, and Harlow), grandmother; Bonnie, uncles; James (Kim), Dale (Kenyan), Dennis (Lynn), aunt; Judy (Ray). “ When I moved to Allison in 7th Grade Joe was one of my first friends. We spent many of evenings watching fresh Prince of bel aire, playing knee football with Daniel and watching the 90's Chicago bulls. Joe continued to be a good friend of mine all thru high school along with everyone else. He was the true popular, preppy quarterback of the football team! He fought till the end! My thoughts are with his family, wife and daughter.

My very deepest sympathies to Joe's family and friends. He was a fine young man whom I had the privilege to know as a student at Allison-Bristow. God bless and comfort you in the days ahead.
