“ We were neighbors and classmates growing up. I was always amazed at their beautiful home. She was such a kind, gentle person. We enjoyed visiting with her at our high school reunions.

“Joyce was a neighbor and friend for many years. In later years, living in the hotel apartments, she was again a neighbor to my parents so I would see her when I travelled to Hampton to visit my parents. Rest in peace Joyce. I know your mother, Gretchen, was waiting with open arms.

Joyce was a quiet, nice person that I was a friend of mine in high school. Gretchen was also a friend of my parents and it was not uncommon for them to give Joyce a ride home from the grocery store when they were in Hampton. Unfortunately, as the years passed and I moved away, I lost touch.

I delivered meals on wheels of which Joyce was a recipient at times when she wasn't helping to share meals at the senior center in Hampton. I helped her get groceries at times and we just became friends, she was just that way, so friendly and so loving. the world could use more like her. We'll see you again in glory Joyce.
