

Joyce Ann Schomburg

October 30, 1937 - November 25, 2022

Joyce Ann Schomburg, 85, passed away Friday, November 25, 2022, at Allen Hospital in Waterloo, IA. On July 8, 2022, Joyce became a resident of the Rehabilitation Center of Hampton, IA. A longtime resident of Hampton, Joyce was born October 30, 1937, to Walter and Helen Thompson. In 1956, she graduated from Geneva Consolidated School; she was on the basketball team, played the oboe in the high school band, and was named Band Queen her senior year. After graduation, she continued her education at Hamilton Business College.

On September 3, 1960, a beautiful hot fall day, Joyce married Bob Schomburg. The two of them enjoyed farming southwest of Hampton, where you would often find Joyce rolling up her sleeves driving the tractor during planting and harvest, cooking and helping care for livestock.

Throughout her career, Joyce worked at Northwestern Bell, Farmers Cooperative and First National Bank. Joyce enjoyed working and retired after 36 ½ years from Hampton Publishing, at the age of 79.

She was a dedicated member of Trinity Lutheran Church, an avid volunteer for the Women's Group, LWML, attended Esther Circle, taught Sunday school, member of the church choir, 4-H leader, and baked regularly for church events.

Joyce always had a twinkle in her eye and a fantastic sense of humor. She was known for her quick wit and infectious laugh. No matter where Joyce went, she left everyone smiling and feeling joyful. She enjoyed baking for friends, family, and her church. Favorites included, German kuchen, peanut-butter cup cookies, her famous chocolate sheet cake and dinner rolls.

Joyce is survived by her son, Todd Schomburg and Jomarie Tucci, Urbandale, IA; sisters Delores Blackmer, Mason City, IA; Beverly Hinders, Ackley, IA; sister-in-law, Sharon (Schomburg) Paulus and husband, Leo of Fort Worth, Texas; brother-in-law, Terry Schomburg, McKinney, Texas; sister-in-law Sandy Schomburg-Wagner and husband, Tom of Iowa City, IA; many cousins, nieces, nephews, great-nieces, and great-nephews. Joyce was preceded in death by her husband Bob, parents Walter and Helen Thompson, brothers Chuck and David Thompson; in-laws, Louis and Corinne Schomburg.
