Judith Diane Fults was born to Clarence "Marvin" and Ann (Jones) Salmen on December 3, 1946. Judy was born in Kansas and then her family later relocated to Iowa. Her father became the manager of the Iowa Falls Fareway Grocery Store. Judy graduated from Iowa Falls High School class of 1965.

Judy and her siblings enjoyed summer visits with their grandparents in South Dakota. Visits there helped instill in her the love of cooking and baking. She thoroughly enjoyed trying new recipes and inviting her son and his family to suppers to share her homemade meals with.

Along with her love of creating delicious foods in the kitchen, came her love of crafting and interior design. Judy enjoyed cross stitching, crocheting and making homemade room decorations and gifts for her family. She loved to shop and buy decorations for her home. She would often redecorate rooms to keep her interest in design flourishing. For many years Judy also enjoyed spending time maintaining a beautiful perennial flower garden. She was very knowledgeable of the names and growing requirements for just about any perennial flower imaginable.

In 1978, Judy was able to reunite with her high school sweetheart, Robert "Bob" Orrin Fults. She moved to the beautiful state of Colorado to live with him, and they were married in Glenwood Springs, in 1982. Together they had a son, Jason. After relocating back to their hometown of Iowa Falls, Iowa, Judy began working at Fareway. She worked there for twenty-five years until her retirement.

Judy Fults is survived by her son, Jason (Danielle) Fults of Iowa Falls, Iowa; grandchildren, Avary, Myla and Channing Fults of Iowa Falls, Iowa; sister, Jill Eggspuehler of Omaha, Nebraska and three nieces and three nephews. She was preceded in death by her husband, Robert "Bob" Fults, her parents, Clarence "Marvin" and Ann Salmen; father and mother in-law, Orrin and Arlene Fults of Iowa Falls, Iowa; a brother, David Salmen of Rancho Cucamonga, California; sister and brother- in law, Linda and Ronald Bandow of Iowa Falls, Iowa and brother- in law, Jack Eggspuehler of Omaha, Nebraska.

Judy's three grandchildren, Avary, Myla and Channing filled her heart with so much love. She adored her family to no end and all who knew Judy, knew how much her son, daughter- in law and grandchildren meant to her. Family, above all, was of the utmost importance to her. Her family will certainly miss the movie nights, dinners, crafts, holidays, and all the times spent with her. Those memories will live on forever, with her family.
