

Kathleen "Kay" White

May 22, 1923 - December 25, 2019

Kathleen "Kay" White, 96, of Aredale, Iowa, passed away Wednesday, December 25, 2019, at the Rehabilitation Center of Belmond. Kay was born Fonda Kathleen Hopkins, daughter of Heine and Katie (Carberry) Hopkins, on May 22, 1923, in Aredale, Iowa. She graduated from Aredale High School. Kay was married to Preston D. White on June 4, 1944, in Aredale. She taught school for a few years and then became Postmaster in Aredale, taking over for her mother, and retired after over forty years. Kay was a member of the New Hope United Methodist Parish in Aredale and the Retired Postmasters Association. She loved to work, but also enjoyed playing the organ at church, reading, traveling with Preston, and spending time with her family. Kay is survived by her daughter-in-law Sheryl (Chuck) Brindle of Belmond; granddaughter Kelly Brock of Osage, and her children Ashlynn, Brooklyn and Ethan; granddaughter Emily (Justin) Barrick of Perth, Western Australia, and their children Rhys and Piper; granddaughter Stephanie (Danny) Birmingham of Sacramento, California, and their children Cicada and Caddis; along with several nieces and nephews, and all of their families. She was preceded in death by her parents Heine and Katie, husband Preston, son Donavon, and great-grandson Spencer Barrick. Memorials may be directed to the New Hope United Methodist Parish in Aredale.
