

Lillian Ann Wiegmann

September 28, 1933 - October 9, 2011

Lillian Ann Wiegmann was born September 28, 1933 in Rosemont, NE. She was the third child of Conrad A. and Martha H. (Hoppen) Wiegmann. She passed away at the age of 78 on October 9, 2011 at Parkview Manor Nursing Home in Reinbeck, IA with members of her family present. In May of 1937 Lil moved with her family to Allison, IA. She attended St. James Lutheran Church in Allison and was confirmed there in 1948. Lil graduated from Allison Public School with the class of 1951. While still in high school and following graduation she worked for Allan Chevrolet in Allison. In 1952 Lil went to work for the ASCS office in Allison and then later in Waverly. In February of 1994 she retired from the ASCS office in Waverly. Lil wanted to travel and spend more time with her great nieces and nephews and their children. When Lil began to have health problems she moved to Elm Springs Assisted Living in Allison. In March of 2010 Lil moved to Parkview Manor Nursing Home in Reinbeck, IA to be near family. Lil enjoyed traveling with friends Fran and Nancy, reading, and bowling. It didn't matter which sport was on TV she liked to watch it. Lil's family was very important to her. She wasn't a great aunt or great-great aunt, she was "Aunt Lil" to them all. Lil is survived by a nephew Terry (Christine) Wiegmann of Texas, great nieces and nephews, Alesia (Todd) Rickert of Reinbeck, Bret (Roberta) Wiegmann of Tacoma, WA, Corey Wiegmann of Newton, and Heidi (Dan) Meyer of Ankeny, and ten great-great nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her parents, her sister Wilhelmina in 1920, and her brother Dirk in 1992.
