

Linda Debner

September 12, 1948 - November 13, 2021

Funeral Services for Linda Debner, 73, of Marble Rock will be 11:00 a.m., Saturday, November 20, 2021 at St. Paul Lutheran Church in Marble Rock with Pastor Robert Scheurer officiating. Burial will be in Westside Cemetery in Marble Rock.

Visitation will start at 10:00 a.m., at the church on Saturday, and go until service time.

Linda was born on Sept 12, 1948, on her grandmother's birthday, to Clarence and Helen (Patterson) Debner in Charles City, Iowa, and passed away on November 13, 2021 at the Floyd County Memorial Hospital in Charles City.

She grew up on the farm by Greene. She began school in Hartwick, Iowa and graduated from high school in Greene in 1966. For a brief time she attended Hamilton Business College in Mason City. She returned home and worked many years at the Marble Rock Public Library. She enjoyed visiting and working with library patrons.

She enjoyed reading and watching Jeopardy. She especially liked trivia and was very hard to beat at board games. She enjoyed old TV shows and movies and collected post cards and stamps. It also was important to her to keep up with her nieces and nephews' activities as well as her extended family of many aunts, uncles and cousins. She enjoyed writing letters to many pen pals.

Linda will be missed by her family and close friends. She is survived by two sisters Patty (Kim Don) Nelson of Marengo, Iowa and Joan (Jeff) Wright of Holmen, Wisconsin; 3 nieces Sara (Andrew) Nickerson, Alicia (Nathaniel) Blumberg, and Krysta (Kevin) Higgins; two nephews Paul (Ashley) Nelson and Jeremy Wright; and one great nephew Noah Robert Clarence Nickerson, just one week old.

Linda was preceded in death by her parents Clarence and Helen Debner.

Those planning an expression of sympathy may direct memorials to St. Paul Lutheran Church, 207 S. Main St., Marble Rock, Iowa 50401.
