“ I met and worked with Lisa during a local librarians joint reading project. We met yearly & I got to know her a little better. She was a very positive person, even battling health issues she kept smiling. She shared her experience with space camp among other things and her enthusiasm was contagious. What a loss for her family & friends & students.
God Bless and sincere condolences to all! terry t

Friends at John Deere PEC - February 23, 2021 at 07:23 PM

“ Wonderful friend, beautiful smile, room-filling laugh, kind words for everyone, sensitive, caring, so many strengths, lived with integrity, fiercely loyal, refused to give up on anything or anyone, so competitive it was almost annoying (because you couldn't beat her at anything!), attentive listener, an amazing singer (story I wish I would have told her: I had a really deep kid-crush on her for a while in fourth grade after a solo that she sang in music class sent chills down my spine). She was always happy to be with others and always put them first, no exceptions. I've never met anyone who didn't like her.

These are just some of things about Lisa that come to the top of my head. In short, she was one of the best people I've ever known, and I'm glad to have had the opportunity to be her friend. I'll miss you, Lisa. May we meet again and dance arms-length, eighth-grade-style to "November Rain" in the dimly-lit cafeteria of the great beyond. Travel well, friend!

Lisa was a fighter 'til the end. Whether she was on a court, on the field....or in a hospital. I loved her smile, her positive attitude, her grace, and her joy. She will be missed - and never forgotten.

“ It had been a long time since I saw Lisa. She came to the AEA for classes and I was able to go down and see her teach. I'll never forget her. Every time I saw her, she had a smile on her face and was always thinking of her students first, My heart goes out to all those she touched. She was one in a million--thank you to her family for sharing her with us.

Even though I was old enough to be her mother, Lisa was a special friend. We enjoyed many good times together, laughing and just having fun. I will never forget our golf outings. I will miss her terribly. She was so special to many people. No one quite like her. Prayers to Jimmy and the Heiden family.

We are so sad to hear of Lisa's passing and are sending continued prayers to the Heiden family as you deal with this tremendous loss. Lisa was special in so many ways, but perhaps most in the way that she made all of us feel special ourselves. Our love to you all as you go through this time.
