Lloyd was born on January 9th, 1935, in Charles City to Jennie Katherine (Ewen) Stauffer and George Victor Stauffer. An only child, he graduated from Greene Community High School in 1952. He was preceded in death by his parents, Jennie and Victor Stauffer.

After the death of his father, Lloyd dedicated himself to the family farm outside of rural Greene. Primarily a farmer, he was also a true “Jack of all trades,” known for his ingenuity and ability to solve problems in creative ways. He could fix almost anything, and when he made something for a neighbor, it was always crafted to a higher standard than he would do for himself. Lloyd loved visiting and catching up on the local news, and he was a great listener, offering his time and attention to anyone who needed it.

Lloyd met his wife, Jane, at the Riviera Ballroom in Janesville, Iowa. Together, they shared a love of dancing—especially polka dances—which became one of their favorite activities. He also enjoyed watching the Big Joe Polka Show or listening to Mollie B., often tapping his toes or dancing along with Jane.

On June 26th, 1971, Lloyd married Mary Jane Sinnwell in Ionia, Iowa. Together, they raised two children: Joel Edward Stauffer of Orange City (and his wife, Laura Stauffer) and Lori Lynn (Stauffer) McDaniel of Pleasant Hill (and her husband, Doug McDaniel). Lloyd took great joy in his four grandchildren—Alec McDaniel, William Stauffer, Thomas Stauffer, and Emily Stauffer—and cherished spending time with them. He built a “Thomas the Train” to pull behind the tractor, gave rides in the skidloader, went fishing, built cardboard playhouses, and took them to work in the garden or to feed the ponies. He attended their activities, whether in person or virtually, always making them feel supported and loved.

In addition to farming, Lloyd worked as a carpenter, contributing to numerous buildings and homes in the community. He was an active 4-H leader and a leading member of the Greene Historical Society, always eager to give back and share his knowledge and skills with others.

Lloyd is survived by his beloved wife, Jane; his children, Joel and Lori; their spouses, Laura and Doug; his four grandchildren; and his extended family of brothers and sisters gained through marriage, Charlie, Marge, Barb, Jim, Linda, Leonard, Randy, Rick and Craig and their families.

“ My sincere heartfelt condolences to you Jane, Joel, and Lori along with your families on the passing on of Lloyd. I had the privilege of getting to know Lloyd during my childhood being a member of the local Greene Butler county 4-H Club in the 1980’s as well as growing up with Joel as my friend and classmate. I remember Lloyd during those years as a strong and engaging person yet when needed he could break out the gruff stout serious side to reel in and settle down us young 4-Hers getting a little to wild and get us back on track to focus on the meeting at hand as the club adult leader. He encouraged the young 4-H officers elected to be a big part of running the meetings and Lloyd led from a role of assisting when needed or asked giving us guidance to let us learn and grow as club members. He was always willing to help all us members with our projects and animals as he was a skillful handy man that could help us all in different ways and supported us all at the county fair shows. Lloyd also always made a point to talk to me and have a short conversation when our paths crossed at school sports or theatre functions that I was involved in with Joel – I appreciated that as a shy kid at that time. As I look back at those impactful days of my youth and growing up into the man that I am now, I realize that Lloyd had a part in providing a shining example to me on how to be a good family man and have a strong presence about you while being caring to others all the same. I appreciated that example from Lloyd in my life for sure ever more so now at my age! I also appreciate the kindness that your family always showed to my family & I for sure! Great memory dedication video to Lloyd! Glad to read and see in the video that he truly enjoyed time spent with his grandkids in his latter years. A good life well lived all the way through the golden years. I know your hearts ache now in saying goodbye to him but forever cherish his memories and living life with him as a family. I tip my hat to you Lloyd and thanks for having a positive impact on my childhood growing up years! Rest in Peace.

“ Lloyd was quite an addition to the Sinnwell Family! Always willing to help not only with helping hands but sound advice! We had a small bathroom that was built before anyone thought about putting in an exhaust fan. So, you can imagine the moisture damage to the interior walls. I came home from work to find her watching Gunsmoke and crying. She said she wanted to have the bathroom redone before graduation. I think it was Randy's. She said Pa would not spend the money. We talked awhile.. I finally said that if she pointed out that their son-in-law and daughter could be helped with a little extra spending money.. As Lloyd was a good carpenter as well as farmer. Pa might rethink the idea. Her eyes flew open and dried. The next thing I know is that Lloyd is coming to work on the bathroom. I don't know that Lloyd ever knew what that meant to her. I don't know how much money he got out of his efforts. But, I bet he got fed dam good! Everyone has their own story as they came through life. Ask them,, tell it!
