

Lola Jean McKee

December 25, 1924 - December 17, 2011

Lola J. McKee, 86 of Clarksville, formerly of Aredale, passed away on December 17, 2011 at the Floyd County Medical Center in Charles City, Iowa. She was born on December 25, 1924 in Aredale, the daughter of Emil and Evaline (Hawver) Jorges. Lola graduated from Aredale Public High School. On July 4, 1945, she was united in marriage to Wilbur McKee at the Methodist Parsonage in Clear Lake, Iowa. Lola was a member of the Aredale United Methodist Church where she was a Sunday School teacher and a past president and secretary of the United Methodist Women. More recently, she attended Immanuel United Church of Christ and Community United Methodist Church in Clarksville. Lola worked in retail stores, owned a café for four years, was a secretary at a lumber yard, and activity director at the Franklin General Hospital. She also volunteered at the Clarksville Elementary and Clarksville nursing home. Lola enjoyed playing scrabble, playing cards, working on crossword puzzles, and coffee. Her door was always open to family and friends. Lola is survived by three daughters, Coni (Howard) Schulz of Mason City, Glenda (Darrell) Kelm of Clarksville, and Rhonda (Mick) Christensen of Charles City, eight grandchildren, Terry (Sheila) Schulz of Nora Springs, RaNae (Pete) Hjelle of Mason City, Scott (Ann) Schulz of Coulter, Jeff (Lisa) Kelm of Clarksville, Kim (Tim) Grandon of Ames, Kelly (Stacey) Christensen of Waterloo, Matthew Christensen of Charles City, and Katie Anderson of Charles City, 26 great grandchildren, and twelve great great grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, three brothers, and five sisters. Lola will be dearly missed by all who knew her.

Tribute Wall

“ Lola Jean McKee

Phillip DePrang - March 16, 2012 at 10:47 AM