

Marilee Nadine Reiher

October 17, 1928 - May 25, 2014

Marilee Nadine (Blume) Reiher, 85, of Allison, Iowa, passed away Sunday, May 25, 2014, at her home in Allison from congestive heart failure. She was born on October 17, 1928, in Waterloo, Iowa, to Charles E. and Edith (Adams) Blume. Marilee graduated from Sumner High School. She attended Iowa State Teachers College and received her B.A. from the University of Northern Iowa. Marilee was united in marriage to Vern H. Reiher on October 1, 1950, in Sumner. She was a kindergarten and first grade teacher, teaching in Parkersburg from 1948 to 1951 and Allison-Bristow from 1968 to 1992. Marilee was a long-time secretary and a fifty year member of the United Church of Christ in Allison. She was involved with the Allison Women's Club for over forty years and with the Allison Community Club. Marilee enjoyed bird watching, traveling, reading, movies and loved music. She gave a lifetime endowment to the Allison Public Library for the children's section, both books and furniture. Marilee is survived by her husband Vern H. Reiher of Allison, daughter Mari (Kent) Cramer of Hampton, son Mark (Brenda) Reiher of New Hartford, son Todd (Cheryl) Reiher of Shell Rock, son John (Brenda) Reiher of Grimes, sister Marlys (J. B.) McAninch of Cedar Falls, twelve grandchildren, three step-grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents Charles and Edith, brother Douglas C. Blume, sister Darlene (Blume) Simon and great-grandson Aiden Miller. Burial will take place in the Allison Cemetery.

Tribute Wall

“ Marilee Nadine Reiher

Deb (Baker) Petersen - September 17, 2014 at 05:54 PM