“ I have so many wonderful memories of Molly from my childhood. The cookies she always had in her freezer, the adorable lamb cakes she would make, all the May Day baskets we exchanged and the quilt she helped me with for 4H. But most of all I remember riding my bike to their house --so many times I cannot count--and thinking back most visits were surely unannounced --and she always greeted me at the door with a smile every time. Molly was such a wonderful, loving woman my thoughts and sympathies are with her family at this difficult time. Jerri Mensing Ranson
