“ My condolences to the family. Mr. Muhlenbruck was one of my two favorite teachers. I always enjoyed catching up with him during Greene Riverdays. I had the privilege of talking to him and Kay before the parade this year. We caught up on the last year’s activities for both of us and challenges that lie ahead. We traded a few jokes, and he told one as the cop car was coming down the hill to which we both started laughing pretty hard. It was with that laughter that I told him I’d see him next year and told both him and Kay “ See you later.” It saddens me to know that I won’t have that luxury next year to crack a few jokes with him and catch up. I hope the family can appreciate in these difficult times the wonderful impact he made on so many lives, including my own. To Kay and the family, I hope you find solace in the knowledge he instilled upon so many students (and adults).

He will forever be “Mr. Muhlenbruck“ to me.

“ So very sorry to hear. He was a grand teacher and coach for his community. Always said that he thought he had painted most of the houses in Greene over his summer breaks. Always one to keep busy and to help others. I remember when first married he lived at the end of my block. He could make the largest snowballs of anyone I ever knew. You had better duck when he threw one or you'd regret getting hit. HA Blessing to the family. Ronnie M.
