

Peter McClure

September 20, 1947 - May 21, 2023

Woodley Funeral Home and Cremation Services of Iowa Falls assisted the family with cremation care.

Peter Ruben McClure was born on September 20, 1947 to Ralph Cornelius and June (McFerren) McClure in Iowa Falls, Iowa. Peter graduated from Iowa Falls High School class of 1965 then Drake University in 1969.

Pete was a lifelong philatelist who specialized in first day covers. His dedication to the craft and his unique skill for creating cachet covers earned him high praise and respect in the philatelic hobby community; Pete received the American First Day Cover Society's Distinguished Service Award in 2017 and was a featured presenter at several events.

Pete was also an avid gardener and walker. He loved Iowa Falls and was always happy to share facts or history about his hometown.

Peter McClure is survived by his children, Mark McClure of Brooklyn, New York and Meredith Francis of Springfield, Virginia and two grandchildren. He is also survived by Mary Will of Acton, Massachusetts.
