

Rae Jean Danger-White

October 13, 1968 - April 22, 2021

Rae Jean Danger-White, 52, of Iowa Falls, passed away Thursday, April 22, 2021 at the Heritage Care Center. No services are planned at this time. Woodley Funeral Home and Cremation Services of Iowa Falls is caring for Rae Jean and her family.

Rae Jean (Danger) White was born the daughter of Jeannie (Legg) and Anthony Rodenbeck and Darrell Danger Sr. and Mary Ann (Luhring) Danger on October 13, 1968 at Camp Lejeune, North Carolina. Rae Jean attended the Ackley-Geneva School District before moving to Newton, Iowa in 1985. She attended Newton Senior High in Newton, Iowa and was a classmate of the class of 1989. Rae Jean worked as a maid for Newton Motor Inn until health issues became too much.

Rae Jean had stage 5 end of life renal failure and an extremely painful rare condition called Calciphylaxis. Everyday Rae Jean was a warrior and gave it her all...fought through the pain...a fight to the end. Rae Jean loved the staff at Heritage Care Center and will miss them greatly. You were all godsend. It is amazing how people become family in such a short period of time.

Rae Jean was blessed by giving birth to her three sons, Marcus Danger, E.J. Blasey and Mikey Geerlings. Her greatest joy was spending time with her grandchildren, Camren, Vada-Snow and Rosalee. Unfortunately, due to Covid and her own health issues she was not able to meet her new grandson, Warner. Being their grandma brought so much joy to her life and she loved them with all her heart and wanted them to know she will always be their angel watching over them. Coloring, playing games, reading, crocheting, cooking, fishing and drawing are just a few of her favorite things to do. Her Maine Coon cats, Keylo and Jemma, were loved so much you would have thought they were human.

Rae Jean White is survived by her sons, Marcus Danger of Ackley, Iowa, E.J. Blasey of Rockwell City, Iowa and Mikey Geerlings of Newton, Iowa; grandchildren: Camren, Vada-Snow, Rosalee, and Warner; her step-father, Anthony Rodenbeck of Melbourne, Iowa; siblings, Darrell (Annette) Danger Jr. of Allison, Iowa, Shawny (Jason) Daniels of Ackley, Iowa, Tonia Strait of Kennwick, Washington, Shane (Cindy) Rodenbeck of Marshalltown, Iowa and Carmen Rodenbeck of Melbourne, Iowa, as well as many aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews and great-nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her mother, Jeannie Rodenbeck; her father, Darrell Danger Sr.; her stepmother, Mary Ann Danger and one step-sister, Cathy Krausman.

Rae Jean will be remembered for her wit, orneriness and her willingness to help anyone who needed it. A kind soul who knew no stranger. One of a kind.

Rae Jean would like to say one last thing: please love your family, forgive each other, and move on. Life is too short to fight over things that do not mean anything. Love-Laugh-Love.

Tribute Wall

MB

“ My deepest condolences to Rae Jean And family. Have fond memories of her.

Matthew Butler - May 18, 2021 at 02:30 PM

TB

“ I am so sorry to read this. I hadn't seen Rae Jean in many years, but I have some great memories of Rae Jean in driver's education at AGHS!

Prayers of comfort and peace to Rae Jean's family and friends.

—Tonya Brass

Tonya Brass - April 22, 2021 at 09:49 PM