

Richard "Dick" Wildebour

June 4, 1939 - April 13, 2021

Richard "Dick" Dean Wildebour, 81, of Hampton, passed away Tuesday, April 13, 2021, at Franklin General Hospital in Hampton. He was born June 4, 1939, in Hampton, to Harm and Alvina (Oltejhbruns) Wildebour. Dick graduated from Hampton High School. He was united in marriage to Janice Waskow on August 16, 1963, in Coulter. He worked for the Franklin County Secondary Road Department. Dick was a member of St. Paul Lutheran Church in Hampton, American Legion and was in the Iowa National Guard. Dick was quite the story teller and always had his signature remarks. He was a Chevy man and enjoyed tinkering with cars. Family was very important to him. He attended many Iowa Hawkeye football games with his relatives. Dick was so proud of his grandchildren; always pulling out pictures of them from his wallet to show them off to others. His nieces and nephews also had a special place in his heart. Dick is survived by his wife Janice Wildebour of Hampton; son Jason (Julie) Wildebour of Ankeny; grandchildren Anna Wildebour and Logan Wildebour of Ankeny; sisters-in-law Margaret Grefe of Iowa City and Marilyn Brunson of Iowa City; brother-in-law Delmar Benning of Hampton; along with numerous nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents, sisters Beverly (Keith) Davis, Marge Benning and infant sister Betty Kay, in-laws Harold and Esther Waskow, brothers-in-law Jerry Christiansen, Earl Hyde, Bob Grefe, Robert Brunson and nephew James Brunson. Visitation will be held from 4:00 p.m. until 6:00 p.m., Sunday, April 18, 2021, at the Sietsema Vogel Funeral Home in Hampton. Funeral services will be held at 10:30 a.m., Monday, April 19, 2021, at St. Paul Lutheran Church in Hampton and will be live streamed through the "St. Paul Lutheran Church of Hampton, Iowa" Facebook Page. Masks are required for those attending the funeral service. Burial will take place in the Hampton Cemetery.
