

Robert Kenneth Campbell Jr.

October 14, 1935 - July 14, 2015

Campbell, Jr. Robert Kenneth "Ken", age 79, of Knoxville passed away peacefully Tuesday evening, July 14, 2015 at his home. He was a proud Navy veteran, who attended Upper Iowa University, earning a Bachelor's Degree in Business in a mere two and a half years. Ken enjoyed his work as a salesman until retirement. A man with a generous heart, he led by example with a life of integrity. Ken never met a stranger. Anywhere he went he could be found chatting and laughing with people. Those who knew him will be forever blessed by his friendship, generosity, infectious laugh and smile. He was a devoted Christian and actively participated at Middlebrook Pike United Methodist Church. Ken leaves a legacy of a life well lived. Ken was preceded in death by two wives, Barbara Jean Schear and Janice Adams Campbell. He is survived by his children, Karen Campbell of Kennesaw, GA, Suzi (Smith) and Glenn Maloof of Glendale, CA.; Fred R. (Buddy) and Shelley Smith of Waynesboro, VA, Kevin and Julie Campbell of Thompson Station, TN, and Kenny and Liz Campbell of Knoxville, TN; grandchildren: Sierra, Cody, Anna and Will Campbell and Emily, Rachel and Andrew Smith

Tribute Wall

“ Robert Kenneth Campbell Jr.

N perez - July 22, 2015 at 02:07 PM