

Robert Gene Morgan

July 15, 1937 - March 4, 2017

Robert Gene "Bob" Morgan, 79, of Geneva, Iowa, died Saturday, March 4, 2017. He was born to Roy and Dorothy (Freeman) Morgan on July 15, 1937. Bob lived in Geneva all his life except for a two year tour of duty with the Army. He graduated from Geneva High School, class of 1955. He enjoyed his classmates, friends and sports. After graduating from high school, Bob joined the Army. He met his wife Jean while stationed at Andrews Air Force Base. She worked as a secretary at the Pentagon in Washington, D.C. Bob was transferred to Lawton, Oklahoma, and Jean followed by transferring her job to Lawton. They were married in a Lutheran church in Lawton. When Bob's tour of duty was up they traveled back to Iowa where Bob went back to work in the Sand and Gravel Business with his brother Richard and his dad. In later years, they added lime to the business. Bob enjoyed his work and appreciated all his customers. Bob was a faithful member of Trinity Lutheran Church. He was a devoted husband and father, and was proud of his children. Bob is survived by his wife Jean. Bob and Jean have four children. Cindy Davidson of Tucson, Arizona, Jeff Morgan of Fountain City, Wisconsin, Jay Morgan of Ames, Iowa and Troy (Nancy) Morgan of Roseville, Minnesota. Bob and Jean have four grandchildren. They are Guy Morgan of Cedar Falls, Iowa, Damon Davidson of San Jose, California, Brinnen and Poonam Morgan, children of Troy and Nancy Morgan of Roseville, Minnesota. Bob was preceded in death by his parents, an infant sister, his brother Richard and an infant granddaughter Jamie.
