“ A very special woman. She was strong, weak, gently, firm in her beliefs. She could drive a tractor, burn brush, fix a great meal, put you in your place. Love a child with tenderness. Always full of life, always gentle understanding of your hardship. I loved Roberta as I would a mother, because when I was falling apart she was my strength.

Thank you my sweet friend, you fought a good fight

“ We have known and been friends with Bill and Roberta for many years. When she had surgery, I stayed with her and when I had surgery, she came here to take care of me. She and Bill also traveled to Michigan for our son's wedding and Roberta helped get the final details done, which was so much appreciated. Our biggest trip together was going out west to ride trains. It was an enjoyable time. We are grateful that she is now resting in peace. I will never forget her.
