Roger Edward Grummer was born September 27, 1942, in Hampton, son of Lewis and Mildred (Immermann) Grummer. He was baptized at St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Latimer on November 1, 1942, and confirmed there on March 25, 1956. He attended St. Paul's Lutheran School before graduating from Franklin Consolidated. On July 22, 1967, Butch was united in marriage to Joyce Deam with his grandfather, Rev. Edward Grummer, officiating at St. Paul's Lutheran Church. To this union, a son and daughter were born.

Butch was owner and operator of Grummer's Standard Station in Latimer, where he became a cherished figure in the community, known for filling up vehicles, washing windows, and delighting children with Dum-Dum lollipops. His dedication extended beyond his business; he faithfully served on the Latimer Fire Department for many years and was an active lifelong member of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, leaving a lasting impact on the lives of those around him.

Butch was an avid outdoorsman. You could find him bird watching, gardening, camping and picnicking. He dedicated a significant amount of time to hunting, trapping, and fishing, leading to many delightful fish fries shared with family and friends. In addition to his outdoor pursuits, he loved to dance and took great pride in cheering on his grandchildren as they engaged in their various activities.

Butch is survived by his wife Joyce Grummer of Latimer; son Ryan (Lori) Grummer of Garner; daughter Shelly (Deon) Juhl of Latimer; grandchildren: Nick Grummer, Derek “ Joyce, I'm remembering a time when Butch said to me, Janice I was fishing on Clear Lake and saw you on the zip line at the Baptist Camp. I replied "you did, that was so much fun". The first and only time I ever saw him at a loss for words. I'll miss him. Our family send their love and condolences.

Great memories of Butch at Beed's Lake Sunday morning breakfasts with all the Latimer guys back in the 60s, pumping 45cent gas at Grummer's when I first started driving and the cooler back by the air compressor that was stocked with cold drinks.
