“ Aunt Ruth was always so welcoming, as I learned 47 years ago when Marlowe first took me to meet the family. Every visit after was a delight. She loved people and made each one feel special. On our last visit to Hampton, when we took Aunt Ruth to her favorite restaurant, we saw how the staff there knew and loved her well. She didn't have to say what her order would be, they knew!

She kept her hands busy making things for others. What an array of afghans she has made over the years! In our last phone call with her shortly before her birthday, she told of how she was still crotcheting afghans to give away.

Marlowe says that when he was a child, Aunt Ruth was always very faithful and generous in giving Christmas presents to her nephews and niece. She and Uncle Chuck also provided the 4H calf for him to raise. That is a special memory for him.

“ So sad to hear of Ruth's passing, my sympathies to her family. She was a nice lady, who became a coffee friend, with the Bakery Coffee Ladies Group, may she rest in peace.
