“ Mom, I can't even tell you how much I miss your laugh and smile this holiday season. I know dad is up there next to you though but I'll forever have a piece of my heart missing until I get to see you both again. The holidays are not the same without my friends, you and dad, to share them with. I love you mom.

“ Tim and Shawn were the perfect couple. They complimented each as they were both easy going and kind to all they met. Shawn had that laugh that will be hard to forget and her quick wit always made us laugh. When she laughed she had that twinkle in her eye that was such a trademark of hers. We were blessed when Tim brought her into our family and with that all their lovely children. It is so sad that God had another plan for Shawn and wanted her back home with her. But I am pretty sure dad and mom were there waiting for her with open arms. Until we meet again dear sis, rest in peace now and make sure you keep everyone laughing up there with your wit. Love always ❤️❤️
