

Shirley Ruth Husz

August 8, 1929 - January 6, 2024

Shirley R. Husz, 94, of Hampton, Iowa, passed away peacefully on Saturday, January 6, 2024, at Franklin General Hospital. She was born August 8, 1929, in Eagle Grove, Iowa, to Ralph P. and Ila L. (McCausland) Humphreys. Shirley graduated from Hampton High School in the class of 1947. Shirley was married to Richard Husz on June 12, 1949, at the First Congregational United Church of Christ in Hampton, Iowa. Shirley worked at C. Burt Donahue insurance for several years. She then left the workforce to start a family and served as a homemaker, raising her two sons.

Shirley was an active member of the First Congregational United Church of Christ in Hampton, Iowa. She dearly loved her church and devoted countless hours to service there - serving on committees, singing in the choir, organizing funerals, making and selling frozen pies for fundraisers, chatting for hours on the phone with other members, advocating for the installation of an elevator, and so much more. A member of at least 83 years, she was one of the longest standing members at the time of her passing.

Outside the church, Shirley also devoted many years of service as a member of the Hampton American Legion Auxiliary. Shirley enjoyed crafting, baking, volunteering, solving crossword puzzles, visiting her sister in Florida, spending time at Lake Cornelia, and most enjoyed time with her granddaughter. During the last several years, Shirley enjoyed watching the many birds and wildlife at her son's acreage, where she resided South of Hampton.

She is survived by her son John & wife JoLynne Husz, granddaughter Lauren Husz, and son Michael Husz, all of Hampton, as well as many nieces & nephews. She was preceded in death by her husband on September 22, 2008, parents, two brothers Richard & James, and two sisters Dorothy (Haldeman) & Marge (Klier).

A celebration of life service will be held at 2:00 p.m. on June 12, 2024, the 75th wedding anniversary of Mr. & Mrs. Richard Husz, at the First Congregational United Church of Christ in Hampton, Iowa. Family will be available for visitation beginning at 1:00 p.m.
