Summer Jo Pearson, beloved mother, daughter, sister and aunt, passed away peacefully in her sleep in May 2021. She was 34 years old. She was born in Hampton, Iowa, to the world's best parents, Maggie and Steve Pearson, on a warm day in June 1986. She joined sisters Steph, Megan and April, and the four became The Pearson Girls. On her 21st birthday, Summer Jo received the best birthday gift ever, her son Owen. Her daughters Jojo and Brielle soon followed, and her heart was complete. Summer Jo was born to be a mom, and her children filled her with pride and joy. They were the loves of her life, and they always will be. Summer Jo's love for children extended to her adoring nieces and nephews who called her Auntie Fun. Her vivacity and creativity captured their hearts and never let go. Summer Jo operated a thriving cosmetology business as well as a dance studio, where she brought out the inner beauty, confidence and kindness in all she met. Her generosity extended to St. Jude's Children's Hospital, La Luz and My Happy Place. She was actively involved in the Catholic church and West Fork schools. As an organ donor, she impacted the lives of up to 200 people. Summer Jo battled with alcohol addiction for several years. She went to a dark place, but she emerged stronger, lifting others up with her. She worked hard to overcome this disease, and we're all so, so proud of her. She was well on the way to recovery when she passed away of natural causes. Summer Jo joins her two miscarried children, Daphne and Dahlia, in Heaven. She is also predeceased by grandparents Alice and Walter Miller, and Mary and Carol Pearson. She is survived by three amazing children Owen, Josephine and Brielle Schmidt, parents Maggie and Steve Pearson, sisters Stephanie (Charles) Pearson, Megan (Jeff) Rosenberg and April (Lincoln) Pearson-Decklever, and nieces and nephews Carter, Mickey, Sydney, Lily, Zoey, Stella and Gus.
