

Thomas Marlyn Jaques

March 21, 1945 - September 6, 2016

Thomas M. Jaques, 71, of Alden, passed away Tuesday, September 6, 2016 at Hospice of North Iowa in Mason City. The family will host a Celebration of Life on Sunday, October 16, 2016 from 1-4 pm at the Alden Public Library. Woodley Funeral Home, LLC of Iowa Falls assisted the family with cremation care. 641-648-7700.

Thomas Marlyn Jaques was born on March 21, 1945 in Iowa Falls, Iowa to William Kenneth and Barbara Jean (Usher) Jaques. He attended Iowa Falls High School and on November 14, 1964 he was united in marriage to Judith Ann Morton at the St. Mark Catholic Church in Iowa Falls, Iowa. Tom worked at Farmland for eight years and at Hamilton Farms, Inc. for thirty-eight years. After retirement he worked part time, in the spring and fall, for Jorden Ag.

Tom loved farming. He was a jack of all trades, skilled in many areas. He liked watching NASCAR and enjoyed going camping at the Clay County Fair. In his free time he kept busy working on honey-do (Judy-do) lists.

Thomas Jaques is survived by his loving wife, Judith Jaques of Alden, Iowa; children, Daniel (Iris) Jaques of Callaway, Florida, Rebecca Jaques of Chillicothe, Iowa, Matthew Jaques of Alden, Iowa and Joanna (Chad) Kuiper of St. Michael, Minnesota; grandchildren: Joshua (Carol) Jaques, Sheridan Jaques, Mason Jaques, Cameron Kolthoff, Hallie (Shane) Lewandoski and Sydney Kuiper; great-grandchildren, Colby and Alice; a sister, Cathy (Brent) Altfillisch; many nieces and nephews as well as a beloved dog, Ziva. He was preceded in death by his parents.

“ My condolences go out to the family. I was a coworker and friend of Dan back in California and we chat from time to time across the Internet. I don't know his family, but someone with his character must come from good stock and the world is a better place because of this fact. God bless you all.

“ Judy, I am so sorry for your loss. I still remember all of the times that I babysat for your kids my senior year in school. May God now heal you and family.
